The Results

"I returned to my country and my life and it is the same... but I am not. I am fearless now!"

– Shakeela Q.

"I loved getting to know the inner parts of me and bringing them together as one. I was energized by the process of tapping into my creativity."

– Susan D.

"The workshop was absolutely beautiful, magical, miraculous, affirming and empowering! The experience was truly transformational and life-changing. And the food and location were spectacular too!"

– Michelle N.

"This was profound for me and helped me move past being "stuck" in life. I learned so many tools, including a basic one about using nature to help me stay centered in my life."

– Yvonne D.

"Attending this workshop was amazing. It changed me. I arrived feeling lost, and left feeling very strong and truly enlightened. The rock climbing showed me how to unlock my fear and transform it into confidence and the ability to trust myself and others. This has translated directly to my workplace. I recommend this retreat for all those looking to explore their real potential."

– Elaine D.
